

TOUR DE FRANCE 2010 23 /24 July 2010

To ensure that the 2010 edition is a great vintage, The Tour de France could do no better than to choose Pauillac - one of the most prestigious appellations in the Médoc - as its latest staging post!

On 24 July 2010 - the penultimate stage of the Tour - a 51km race against the clock will be staged over the rolling hills of the Médoc, between Bordeaux and Pauillac.
Without a doubt, the last phase in the battle for the Yellow Jersey...

On this occasion, we offer you a unique stay in the venue where you'll have the chance to be a privileged spectator at the finish of this stage of the Tour de France.

Programme:

- ❖ Accommodation: Relais & Châteaux Cordeillan-Bages, Pauillac, superior double room.
- ❖ Gourmet dinner at Château Cordeillan-Bages: Jean-Luc Rocha's cuisine, two Michelin stars.
- ❖ Cellar visit and tasting at Pauillac Grand Cru Classé Château Lynch-Bages.
- ❖ July 24: Grandstand seat a few metres from the finishing line.

From 330€ per person in a double room*

*Including one night at Relais & Châteaux Cordeillan Bages, 1 breakfast, 1 dinner, cellar visit and tasting at Château Lynch-Bages.

Not included: tourist tax to be paid directly at the hotel (2€/day/person), any other extra.